Attorney for Defendant: CHRIS M. EVANS

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRIS M. EVANS,

Defendants

Crim. S-02-287 FCD

STIPULATION AND ORDER THEREON

FACTUAL PREMISE

The defendant herein, Chris McKinney Evans, has completed the sentence imposed by this court in the above captioned matter. Following release from custody he has obtained employment as the Vice President for Corporate Development of Coolid Corporation in Reston, Virginia. A shareholder in this corporation, Michael Milan, is a convicted felon. Although Mr. Evans does not deal directly with Mr. Milan nor is he supervised in any way by Mr. Milan his probation officer expressed a concern over the relationship, (Mr. Milan and Mr. Evans have the same probation officer) and requested that the judges who sentenced the defendants acknowledge their agreement that Mr. Evans employment does not violate the terms of his supervised release. Two of the three judges involved have made such an order, a copy of Judge Nickerson's order is attached.

1 Counsel for the defendant has discussed this matter with the government who have
2 no objection to this court making a similar order.

3 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED between counsel for the defendant and the
4 government that the defendant, Chris McKinney Evans, in his capacity as Vice President
5 of Corporate Development of Coolid Corporation, maybe permitted to associate, with 6 Michael Milan.
